13.9. BRANCH MANAGEMENT SYSTEM (BMS)

ISCCM is growing every year, after 24 years it has more than 10000 members with 76 branches all over the country. With the increase in the number of branches and passage of time it was felt that other than few branches the activities, participation and involvement of other branches with centre are decreasing. It was also felt that their involvement in National election is decreasing. Hence the Idea of this Branch Management system (BMS) was launched.

Branches were made with a motive to evenly spread out the knowledge of critical care and ISCCM activities all over the country. Branches were given the rights to organise their own academic and social activities and also to organise the National Conference. Branch constitution was also made to maintain uniformity. All branch activities along with their audit report is submitted to the centre annually. It is the centre's job to review the branch activities annually. Credentials are given accordingly depending upon the involvement of branches with the centre and other activities.

Through branch management system (BMS) every branch is linked directly to the centre. Instead of centre the stakeholder is now the branch. The chairman and secretary of the branch has open access to upload and de-load in their webpages assigned. They have freedom of uploading all their activities, election results, audit reports on their own. They can conduct their city branch election also through that. Every branch member has got an access right to the BMS so that they can give their feedback. Grievances against the branch, member or centre can also be put through branch management system.

Overall BMS was developed to make the two-way communication better between branches and centre in a much smoother way. Branch and Individual participation in central activities to increase. An absolute transparent state can be maintained between the branch and the centre. Branch activities can be directly loaded and website can be directly handled by the branch themselves. A competitive attitude can be developed amongst branches so that ISCCM progresses faster.

13.10

- 13.10.1 Incremental pattern of contribution from the center to the host city ISCCM Branch, from the finances of the National Congress conducted in that city.
- 13.10.2 This contribution will be from the profits made by the organizing committee of that National congress
- 13.10.3 The contribution will be a minimum of 5 lakhs and maximum of 50 lakhs of rupees
- 13.10.4 In the unfortunate case of the congress ending in loss there will not be any contribution to the city branch.
- 13.10.5 For the first crore of rupees of profit made the contribution will be 10%. For the second crore of profit made the contribution will be 15% ( 10 Lakhs @ 10 % from first crore and 15% of the profit above one crore); For the third crore of profit made the contribution will be 20% ( 10 lakhs from first and 15 lakhs from second crore plus 20% for the profit above 2 crores) . If the profit made will be any figure above three crores the total contribution will be a maximum 50 lakhs.
- 13.10.6 This contribution will be in the form of aid to the city branch.
- 13.10.7 The city branch receiving the contribution has to be compliant in all regards to the rules and regulations of ISCCM and should part take in all activities of the National Congress being held in their city
  - a. The branch should have filed its election report for the immediate past 3 years including the conference year.
  - b. The branch should have filed its audited accounts for the immediate past 3 years including the conference year
  - c. The branch should have filed its activity report for the immediate past 3 years including the conference year.
- 13.10.8 All the above recommendations will be applicable after Ahmedabad National Congress, as the share pattern of this congress is already fixed by the EC

13.10.9 All the above recommendations will come up for review by EC in 2024 after the National Congress in that year.
